WALKING WITH GOD

In one of the most beautiful "biographies" contained within the pages of Holy Writ, Moses records, "And Enoch lived sixty and five years, and begat Methuselah: And Enoch walked with God after he begat Methuselah three hundred years, and begat sons and daughters: And all the days of Enoch were three hundred sixty and five years: And Enoch walked with God: and he was not; for God took him" (Genesis 5:21-24).

For Enoch, walking with God was not an empty ritual or a few minutes of devotion here and there; walking with God was his life. It was a personal journey through the daily routines of life that kept God as his guide and companion. Such a life included marriage and family but these did not interfere with His walk with God; they were part of it. Enoch's walk with God was a lifetime adventure, growing closer to Him each step of the way. Enoch was not old when God took him; he was quite young for his day. The end of life was also different than others, because it was God's action — not death (1 Corinthians 15:55) — that ended his earthly walk. What a wonderful life! May we all determine to walk with God today (1 John 1:5-7), just as Enoch did then, that we may join Enoch in His walk with God for the rest of eternity.

A TIME TO EVERY PURPOSE

Solomon's wonderful wisdom is brought to us powerfully in Ecclesiastes 3:1-8 where he mentions many categories of life: "A time to be born and a time to die..." There are events in our lives that we eagerly anticipate, while other events we dread, even fear. It is God's purpose that we build and break down, plant and pluck up what we planted. When we read of all these different events that are necessary, we can thank God that He has made such wonderful provisions for our work, lives and well-being. As we age, we become more and more thankful that God has made provision for us to pass from this life into an eternal home. We are thankful that disease, suffering, disappointments, tears, pain and all the rest will pass away (Revelation 21:4). As we ponder this, we realize that there is a time to obey God, a time to live for Him, a time to forgive others, a time to heal from hurts and renew our spirits, and a time to urge our friends and family to prepare for this eventual death.
