The Richness of Humility

There is nothing quite so wonderful as a heart that humbly accepts the manifold blessings of the Lord. While "God is opposed to the proud," He "gives grace to the humble" (Jas. 4:6). Consequently, we should strive to be like beautiful stalks of wheat—the more laden with grain, the lower bent toward the ground.

If taken for granted, even a blessing can become a curse and a well-spring producing pride and arrogance. Surely, such brings the opposition of God and, with it, disaster. Solomon reminds us that "Pride goes before destruction, and a haughty spirit before stumbling" (Prov. 16:18). Pride is an anti-God state of mind because it exalts us to a position that should be reserved exclusively for the Lord. One of life's greatest challenges is achieving the proper balance between pride and self-abasement. Paul said that a man ought not to "think more highly of himself than he ought to think; but to think so as to have sound judgment..." (Rm. 12:3). A Christian can feel very positive about himself without being puffed up by pride (Ph. 4:13). The focus, however, must not be on self but on Christ who lives within us.

When Christ reigns in our hearts through faith, our lives are placed at His disposal. This is when we become most effective in our service to God and our fellow man. But, when our priority is self, we become callous to the Master's will and find ourselves standing in opposition to God. Such a path leads only to heartache and destruction.

A much better life is the one that is established on a foundation of humility. God's way truly is best for us. He gives the riches of His grace to the humble. Like a grain-laden stalk of wheat, we are full and rich because, in bending to the will of the Master, He delights to bless us over and over again. We should, therefore, "Humble [ourselves] in the presence of the Lord, and He will exalt [us]" (Jas. 4:10).
